Objective

I am seeking a graphic design position that allows me to flex my web / print design muscles to create work that demonstrates both innovation and ease of use for customers / clients.

My portfolio can be found at <http://baydaydesign.com>

Experience

Fresh out of high school in 2008, I started a business aquaculturing coral and servicing reef tanks for local marine hobbyists and businesses. Shortly after, I was offered a position as a graphic designer and team lead of an art department for a company that produced financial documents. Since then, I have been obsessed with expanding my knowledge of design. Whether it be projects I get from my employer, or personal side projects I would work on in my free time. I am extremely determined and have pride in my work ethic. I am confident that if hired I can be a valuable member of your company.
